

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Model Publication Scheme (MPS) for Further Education (FE) in England, Wales and Northern Ireland

Main categories

These eight main groups (and the classes within them) form the MPS. They are in a logical order and no one single section has a higher status than another. The types of information and documents listed within the classes are examples only and not mandatory. The purpose of the examples is to indicate the type of information that should be made available, if held, via the MPS.

Some classes are 'Optional', that is an institution need not include these classes in their Publication Scheme (PS) but may still sign up to the MPS. All other classes are 'Core' and are compulsory. For further details see the Information Commissioners 'Explanatory Note', particularly sections 3.2 and 3.3.

The MPS has been drawn in such a way as to exclude classes of information that are exempt under the Freedom of Information Act or for which exemptions could be claimed. However, it is recognised that individual items of information or documents or parts thereof in a class may be exempt and these can be omitted if they are exempt, provided in all cases the institution makes clear what has been omitted and why. Personal data and information, which affect the commercial operations of an institution, are two examples.

The main groups of classes of information in the model publication scheme are:

1. GOVERNANCE
2. FINANCIAL RESOURCES
3. HUMAN RESOURCES
4. PHYSICAL RESOURCES
5. STUDENT ADMINISTRATION AND SUPPORT
6. INFORMATION SERVICES
7. TEACHING AND LEARNING
8. EXTERNAL RELATIONS

Class	Description	Manner	Fee
Examples of the type of information that fit in this class	A brief description to aid the public in understanding what the type of information is	The media in which the information is to be provided, ie paper or electronically (via the Internet or Email)	Whether there is a charge for any of the information within each class

The columns for Manner and Fee have been left blank in the MPS, as this information will need to be decided by each institution individually.

1. Governance

Introduction

This section covers information relating to the way the institution is governed and how decisions are made. It includes information on the legal status of the institution, which individual member of staff or group within the organisation is responsible for specific functions and where they fit in the overall structure of the organisation. In some instances information from committee minutes will be exempt from disclosure where it contains personal information, information that may damage the commercial interests of the institution or that may threaten the health and safety of specific individuals.

	Class	Description	Manner	Fee
1.1	Legal framework	This class contains information relating to how the institution was established and its standing from the point of view of the law. Ultimately the corporate status of some FE 'corporations' will be conferred by the relevant statutes, in particular the Education Reform Act of 1988 and the Further and Higher Education Act 1992. The actual legislation is often already publicly available, for example on the HMSO web site (www.legislation.hmso.gov.uk/acts.htm) and need not be duplicated. Every educational institution (University, Further or Higher Education College) has a legal basis, which forms its legal status. This legal status can have been obtained in a variety of ways such as by Instruments and Articles of Government, Charter or an Act of Parliament.	Paper	Yes

4. Physical Resources

Introduction

Institutions are often substantial land and property owners in their own right. Classes in this section cover information at a strategic level relating to the institution's management of its physical resources. Information that provides specific details of the institution's future plans to alter its estate (eg proposals to purchase additional property) may be exempt from disclosure where such disclosure would damage the institution's commercial interests.¹

6. Information Services

Introduction

This section covers those functions within the institution that provide access to information to the student body and both academic and administrative staff. These include libraries, computing services and information support services.

Such functions may be managed separately from each other, or in various combinations. These services routinely explain their facilities (and the conditions of their use) to students, staff and the general public, and it is information of this nature that is included within this section.

Information services inevitably hold large quantities of personal data that are exempt from general disclosure.

	Class	Description	Manner	Fee
6.1	Availability and conditions of use of facilities	Information in these classes provides details about who can access systems and services and the facilities that they can access. They also provide assurance for external bodies/individuals that rules exist to ensure that breaches of conditions of use (eg breach of copyright, Electronic spamming of an external site) are appropriately dealt with. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opening hours of libraries, helpdesks, etc, scheduled maintenance times of systems • Who is allowed to use the facilities (for example, categories of persons and their associated rights/levels of access) • The general rules and conditions of use (eg no smoking/drinking/eating, the existence of policies with regard to law such as copyright, computing code of practice, data protection). For other student policies, see reference to other relevant student policies in PS • Some of the information may be covered in the student registration details or staff conditions of employment, but it will be necessary to advise how other categories are accepted as users, eg temporary staff, short course or conference use, 'taster sessions' etc • There should be a pointer to other codes of conduct or rules external to the institution which may apply to the user (eg JANET acceptable use rules, Athens registration rules) • Access to/use of Archives, including how far back in time information exists and if so to what extent it is available³ • Details of logging, monitoring and procedures followed in case of breach of conditions of use 	Email Email Paper Paper Paper Paper Paper	No No Yes Yes Yes Yes Yes

6.3	Policies with regard to data and information	Information in this class offers assurances to data subjects, whether they are individuals or companies that deal with the institution, that data relating to them is being handled well, minimising the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Security policies (ie how the data is protected). It could be argued that provision of information on this could risk a crime being committed, so it might be exempt or certain parts would not be published. (This is only really an issue where the security policy is explicit enough to include detailed description of implementation. Clearly disclosure of this sort of information could potentially lead to a crime under the Computer Misuse Act) • Data retention and archive policies (how long it is kept for, what happens to it after the need for it has passed, anonymising data to keep for statistics) • Data protection statements/policies • Policies on CCTV monitoring, RIPA etc 	Email Email Email Email	No No No No
6.4	Procurement and disposal policies	Information in this class offers assurances that monies are being appropriately spent and assurances that procurement is fair and open. The disposal policies also assure that the institution is making correct and appropriate use of funds. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policies relating to the procurement and disposal of equipment • Collection management/preservation strategy (including policy on disposal of stock) 	Paper Paper	Yes Yes

8. External Relations

Introduction

This section covers information relating to the institution's relationship with its external environment. These include the formal reports the institution is required to provide to its funding bodies⁴, arrangements with other institutions, how it manages its relationship with the local community and how it retains contact with its former staff and students.

By virtue of its nature most institutions will probably find that the majority of these classes are already made available to the public in some means. Members of the public are also likely to find the same or related information is available from the external partners with which the institution has links.

	Class	Description	Manner	Fee
8.1	Community liaison (Optional)	This class should contain information about the institution's relationship with their local community. The information included within this class represents the institution's approach to maintaining and fostering that relationship. An example of the type of information in this class is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policies relating to the institution's community relations 	Email	No
8.2	Fundraising (Optional)	Information included within this class relates to the activities undertaken by the institution to raise additional revenue to that provided by its main funding bodies. An examples of the type of information in this class is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promotional material relating to institutional fundraising objectives including plans, prospectus etc, where their release would not damage the commercial interests of the institution 	Paper	Yes
8.3	Government and Regulator relations	This class relates to the information that the institution is legally obliged to make available to its funding and/or monitoring bodies⁵. Such material may provide information as to how well the institution is performing. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reports/returns to funding councils, inspectorates, standards bodies, research councils, professional bodies, government departments etc • OFSTED Inspections (for FE), Teaching Quality Assessment and Research 	Paper Paper	Yes Yes

		Assessment Exercise Policies (see also Teaching and Learning)
8.4	Marketing and recruitment	This class should include publications relating to student recruitment (UK and International), including the college prospectus. It will also include information related to the learning experience. There will be some overlap with Student Administration and Support. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prospectus • Open days • Entry requirements • Widening participation 	Paper	No
8.5	Public relations	This class should contain information that is created specifically by the institution to help publicise its facilities and activities. The majority of such information will have been created for prospective and current students, but may still be of considerable interest to those wishing to know more about what the institution has to offer and the activities of its students and staff. Examples of the type of information in this class include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Press releases • Prospectus • Course brochures • Newsletters and magazines • Current information provided to an enrolled student (ie contents of the 'welcome pack') 	Paper	No
